Disc Golf is played like traditional "ball" golf, but with flying discs instead of balls and clubs. One point (stroke) is counted each time the disc is thrown and when a penalty is incurred. The goal is to play each hole in the fewest strokes possible. The player with the lowest total strokes for the entire course wins.

Wooded fairways, hayfields, and rolling hills make Pineland's 4,116' course is an intermediate 18 holes with a variety of fun obstacles and varying terrain which follows along Muskrat Hollow Trail (snow shoe trail in winter). Visit the Outdoor Center for more information.
